

Report

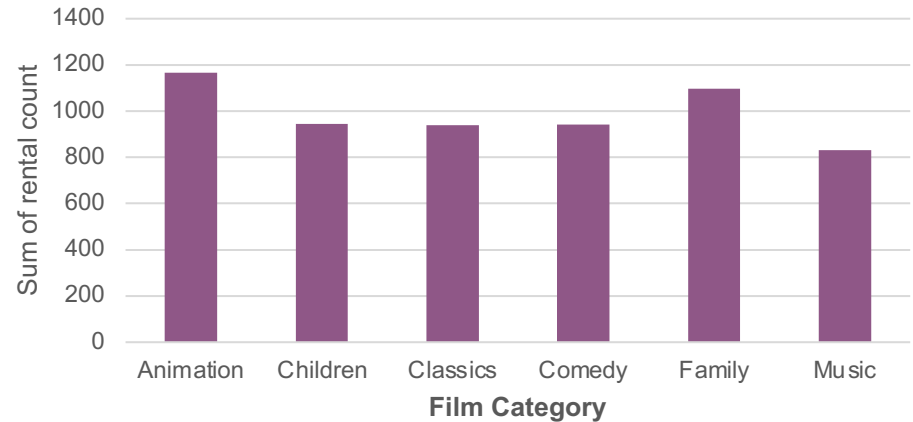

SQL Project

What is the Film Category that families are watching has the most Rental count?

- The results show that The Films in the animation category occupy the first place in terms of the number of Rental, followed by the family category then, Children category then, comedy then, classic and the music category is the last one.

The Film Category that families are watching

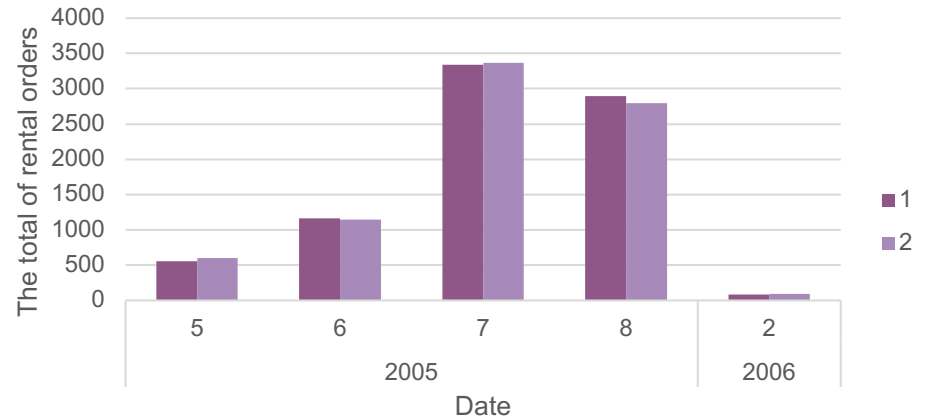

How the two stores compare in their count of rental orders during every month for all the years?

- The results show that The number of rental requests for each month is close for both stores. And the first store exceeds the second in the number of rental requests by a very few numbers of rental request.

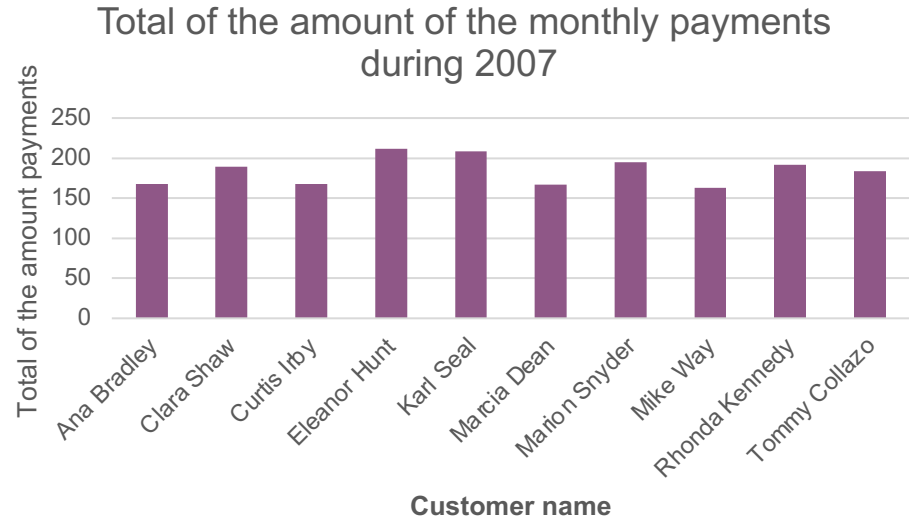

The total of rental orders for the two stores during 2005 and 2006 who were our top 10 paying customers during 2007, and what was the amount of the total payments?

- The results show that Eleanor Hunt was the highest paying customer in 2007, follow by Karl Seal, follow by Marion Snyder.

For the top 10 paying customers. Who has the maximum difference across their monthly payments during 2007?

- The results show that Eleanor Hunt has the maximum difference across their monthly payments. then Curtis Irby, follow by Rhonda Kennedy.

